You have applied for, or currently reside in, a rental housing unit located in a development operating under the "Low-Income Housing Tax Credit" (LIHTC) Program of Section 42 of the Internal Revenue Code. The collection of certain resident data is authorized by the Housing & Economic Recovery Act of 2008 and will be furnished to the U.S. Department of Housing & Urban Development (HUD). Each household must be offered the opportunity to disclose their race, ethnicity, and disability status. Parents/guardians are asked to disclose on behalf of all children in the household who are under the age of 18. There is no penalty for those households who do not wish to provide the requested information. However, all adult members (18 years or older) must sign/date at the bottom of this form as proof that the option to disclose was made available.

The following racial and ethnic definitions are modeled after the OMB-approved form, "Race and Ethnic Data Reporting Form" (HUD-27061), used by the U.S. Department of Housing and Urban Development (HUD):

A. Household members can select one or more of the following applicable racial definitions:

- American Indian or Alaska Native - A person having origins in any of the original peoples of North and South America (including Central America), and who maintains tribal affiliation or community attachment.
- Asian - A person having origins in any of the original peoples of the Far East, Southeast Asia, or the Indian subcontinent including, for example, Cambodia, China, India, Japan, Korea, Malaysia, Pakistan, the Philippine Islands, Thailand, and Vietnam.
- Black or African American - A person having origins in any of the black racial groups of Africa. Terms such as "Haitian" can be used in addition to "Black" or "African American."
- Native Hawaiian or Other Pacific Islander - A person having origins in any of the original peoples of Hawaii, Guam, Samoa, or other Pacific Islands.
- White - A person having origins in any of the original peoples of Europe, the Middle East, or North Africa.

B. Household members can select one of the following applicable ethnic definitions:

- Hispanic or Latino - A person of Cuban, Mexican, Puerto Rican, South or Central American, or other Spanish culture or origin, regardless of race. The term "Spanish origin" can be used in addition to "Hispanic" or "Latino."
- Not Hispanic or Latino - A person not of Cuban, Mexican, Puerto Rican, South or Central American, or other Spanish culture or origin, regardless of race.

C. Per the Fair Housing Act, the definition of disabled is:

- A physical or mental impairment which substantially limits one or more major life activities; a record of such an impairment; or being regarded as having such an impairment. For a definition of "physical or mental impairment", please see 24 Code of Federal Regulations, Part 100.201(a)-(d).

WASHINGTON STATE HOUSING FINANCE COMMISSION
LOW INCOME HOUSING TAX CREDIT LEASE RIDER
(must be attached to Resident's lease)

Property Name: Basalt Ridge Apartments

Unit: _____

Applicant/Resident Name: _____

Dear Applicant or Existing Resident:

Summary

The Owner of this property rents residential units under the federal Low-Income Housing Tax Credit (LIHTC) program as administered by the Washington State Housing Finance Commission (the "Commission"). Under the LIHTC program, the Owner can qualify for federal IRS tax credits by renting some or all of the units in the property to low-income households and restricting the rents for those units. In addition, the owner may have agreed to reserve some of the units in the property for households or persons with special needs. (See the Special-Needs section below.) This rider was prepared to help residents understand the LIHTC program.

Income and Rent Limits

The Owner has agreed to reserve some or all of this property's units for households at or below 30, 35, 40, 45, 50 or 60% of the area median income. In certain cases, the Owner has also agreed to reserve some units at 20, 70 or 80%. The property manager can provide you with this property's specific income set-asides. Note that the property may not have units available at the lowest income set-asides. The LIHTC program provides rent limits based on a household's income set-aside and number of bedrooms in their unit. The Owner cannot charge more than the LIHTC rent limit for your unit. Ask the property representative for specific information.

Annual Recertification

To be eligible for a rent- and income-restricted unit, all income and assets of every household member must be documented and verified. The property's Owner or their agent will give you the required forms to declare and verify income and assets from all sources. They may also ask you for supporting documentation. The program requires each household to recertify or complete a new set of required forms at least once every 12 months.

Since this program involves IRS tax credits, the Commission and everyone involved with this program is under growing pressure to prevent fraud. Your forms must be prepared carefully, with every question answered. Annually, you will be signing a document under penalty of perjury, saying that the information and verifications submitted are correct.

Households who do not properly complete their paperwork may not qualify for residency or may be required to vacate their income- and rent-restricted unit.

A property that has more than one income/rent limit can switch a household to a higher or lower income/rent limit, based on the household's income at recertification. Ask the property representative for specific information.

Full-time Student Households

A household where each member is a full-time student may not qualify for an income- and rent- restricted unit. A household where everyone becomes a full-time student after move-in may no longer qualify for an income- and rent-restricted unit. Your household must notify management immediately if your student status changes. Any change in student status (for any household member) could jeopardize your household's ability to stay in your unit. Ask your property representative for specific information.

Special Needs (if applicable)

The Owner of this property may have chosen to reserve some of this property's units for households that have Special Needs. Units could be reserved for households that meet the Commission's criteria for Large Households, Persons with Disabilities, Elderly, Homeless Housing or Farmworkers. Households or individuals applying for one of these Special Needs units will be required to verify their eligibility. Ask your property representative for specific information.

Eventual Tenant Homeownership (ETO) Option (if applicable)

The LIHTC program gives Owners the option to make rental units available to households for purchase as homeownership units after the initial 15-year federal compliance period. If the Owner elected this option in their contract with the Commission, the Owner will provide residents with a lease addendum regarding the ETO and will work with residents to determine their eligibility for homeownership. The Commission does not determine resident homeownership eligibility. A unit is sold by the Owner to the resident. If the Owner determines a resident is not eligible for ETO, then the Owner must continue to rent the unit as a LIHTC unit under current program rules. Please ask your property representative for more information.

Nondiscrimination

The property must comply with federal housing policy governing nondiscrimination and accessibility. In making an apartment available, the Owner cannot discriminate against you because of your race, creed, color, sex, national origin, marital status, age, disability or familial status. Furthermore, the Owner cannot discriminate against you based on the sources of your income (including Section 8 subsidy), provided the sources of income do not violate any federal, state or local law. Additional state, local laws or ordinances may also apply. When selecting residents, the Owner cannot apply standards to a potential resident that are more burdensome than standards applied to any other potential or existing resident.

Good Cause Evictions/Nonrenewals

The Owner is prohibited from evicting you and is prohibited from refusing to renew your lease or rental agreement, other than for "good cause." Generally, good cause shall mean the grounds for termination of tenancy. Such grounds are generally defined in federal regulations at 24 C.F.R. Section 966.4(l)(2) and are applicable except where disallowed by Section 42. These grounds include but are not limited to:

- Failure to make payments due under the lease;
- Criminal activity;
- Discovery after admission of facts that made the tenant ineligible;

- Discovery of material false statements or fraud by the tenant in connection with an application for assistance or with reexamination of income;
- Serious or repeated violations of material terms of the lease.

Any termination or non-renewal notice must state the specific factual violations and grounds for termination. Under federal law, you have the right to enforce this requirement in state court as a defense to any eviction action brought against you.
